

Client Objectives:

Danforth Pewter, a family owned company that executes 100% hand made items, is dedicated to “Keeping the Earth Green”. Clean, renewable, and affordable Solar Electricity Generation is a viable part of their business model. Danforth Pewter's goal is your complete satisfaction, and to ensure that your ordering experience is timely, convenient, and enjoyable.

- Lower carbon footprint to reduce their impact and be an environmentally friendly organization.
- Cost savings and predictability vs. grid-supplied electricity.

Our Solution:

SolarSense with Partner AllEarth Renewables, developed a 150 kW AllSun Dual Axis tracker group net-metered solar PV electric generation facility in Vermont.

- Solar System Description: 157.3 kW Solar PV system comprised of 456 SunPower DC Modules 345W Panels.
- Business Model: 20 year Power Purchase Agreement

Benefits:

- Predictability in electricity costs for 20 years
- $0 out of pocket capital for Danforth Pewter
- Environmental benefit of using 5,000,155 kWh's created from clean renewable energy over 20 year term